Vero Beach Art Club Scholarship CONFIDENTIAL APPLICATION FOR 2024 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD RULES AND RESTRICTIONS

- Applications and artwork must be submitted between 12:30 - 4:00 pm on Friday, March 1st, 2024, to The Art Club & Gallery in Historic Downtown Vero Beach and artwork picked up 1:00 - 3:00 PM on Saturday, March 2nd, 2024.
- Dropping off and picking up work within timelines is a professional requirement. If you are unable to follow those guidelines, it may reflect on the decision process.
- Funds awarded must be used at an accredited art school, college, or university up to one year following the award date to the school designated on your application.
- You must be following an art-related course of study.
- All awards will go directly to the school designated on your application. Scholarships may only be used for tuition or books and must be payable to the school alone. No checks will be issued to the student for outside supplies such as computers, cameras, or other items needed for other necessities.
- You must be a graduating senior from an Indian River County high school or accredited home school.
- All artwork submitted must be fully the work of the applicant.
- Three pieces of your work must be submitted and delivered directly to the drop-off.
- Each application must be accompanied by a letter of reference by an art teacher or school official.
- No submissions may be left at the Art Club Gallery or office early or after pick-up times. If you cannot be there to drop off your work or pick it up on the designated day and time, you must find a family member or friend to do this for you. The Vero Beach Art Club is not allowed to store any artwork.
- By applying for this scholarship, you agree that photos of your work may be allowed to be used in publicity for the Vero Beach Art Club about the scholarship program and that your name may be used in a news release solely for scholarship announcements related to the Vero Beach Art Club's Scholarship program.
